Before Returning Your Adult Toy

Before returning your faulty adult toy we recommend that you check the following list of simple checks. For example around 30% of toys returned simply have flat batteries, the batteries are in the wrong way or lids have not been correctly closed.

Some simple checks

- Ensure that you are using the correct batteries. AA and AAA batteries do look similar.
- Ensure that the batteries are inserted the correct way. The majority of toys have + / - indicators. In some toys all batteries are inserted with the terminals facing the same way e.g. ++, while other toys have the batteries in alternate directions e.g. + -.
- Ensure that your batteries are charged. If you do not have a battery tester try brand new batteries.
- Ensure that your battery connections are dry and have not been exposed to moisture.
- Ensure that the lid is closed firmly. Some lids shut with a 'click' to lock them in place.
- Read the toys instructions if supplied. Some new toys (e.g. Swan) come with a locking sequence such that 2 buttons must be held down to unlock before power will come on.
- If all these measures fail and the item is still within its warranty terms it may be returned for replacement or refund.
